

Conference terms and conditions

Data collection and usage

Microbiome ANCHOR collects personal information including contact details, event-specific information, and payment information. The information is primarily used to facilitate your registration, process payment, and communicate with you. This includes managing conference logistics and facilitating special requests, as well as sending confirmations for items such as conference registration, abstract submissions, and notifications for items such as edits or updates to conference proceedings and events. Presenter names, organization, and abstracts will be available on the conference website.

Photo and video recording by conference attendees is strictly prohibited during the sessions, unless in certain circumstances prior permissions are obtained from the presenter or Microbiome ANCHOR. Microbiome ANCHOR may take photographs and videos of delegates attending the conference. These photographs and/or videos may be used in the marketing and promotion of future conferences, and also on Microbiome ANCHOR's social media channels. If you do not wish to be included, you must notify us in writing before the event at info@microbiome-anchor.ca

Refund Policy: If a registrant cancels their registration, no refunds are issued. If Microbiome ANCHOR cancels the event, registrants will be notified via email, and only registration fees will be refunded.
